Refugee Camp in My Neighbourhood

INTERACTIVE TOURS FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

Take a health specific tour through a simulated refugee camp experience in Auburn. You'll experience the journey of a refugee and gain a better understanding of the challenges they face as they arrive in Australia. Tours are delivered by guides from a range of refugee and asylum seeker backgrounds, and NSW Refugee Health staff. This interactive tour will help you:

- Understand how the refugee experience can impact on wellbeing.
- Develop your understanding of risk factors for this group.
- Improve your ability to engage effectively with people from refugee backgrounds.

Date: Wednesday 7 August 2019

Time: Tours depart between 12pm and 2.30pm (approximately 2.5 hours each)

Where: Auburn Centre for Community, 44A Macquarie Road, Auburn

Cost: $22 (use discount code HEALTH)

Book online: bit.ly/2K4sU2j
